

PHILIP SIMPSON

ASA, FIAENG, FSAIIE

Principal and Consulting Actuary

philip.simpson@milliman.com

+44 20 7847 1543

Current Responsibility

Philip is a principal and consulting actuary in the London office of Milliman.

Professional Work Experience

Philip specializes in life insurance. His consulting assignments include mergers and acquisitions, company reconstructions, new company launches, product design and pricing, and financial reporting.

Prior to being a consultant, Philip worked in reinsurance, where his experience included design and review of reinsurance programs and a wide range of life and health insurance products.

Professional Designations

- Fellow, Institute of Actuaries
- Associate, Society of Actuaries
- Fellow, Society of Actuaries in Ireland

Education

- BSc, Mathematics and Theoretical Physics, St Andrews University, Scotland
- MBA (Edinburgh Business School) specializing in Financial Risk Management

Affiliations

- Member of the Life Insurance Committee and Public Relations Committee of the Association of Consulting Actuaries
- Co-author of several actuarial papers